Frequently asked questions

In what form is the DüsseldorfCard available?

The DüsseldorfCard is available as a print@home ticket, as a stick-on token or as a Rheinbahn ticket.

What are the benefits of the DüsseldorfCard?

You can use bus and rail services in Düsseldorf and surroundings free of charge, and you get discounts of up to 100% on over 80 offers, such as guided tours of the city, museums, souvenirs and much more.

In which area am I allowed to use the DüsseldorfCard for travel?

You can use all bus and rail services and all surcharge-free trains (RE, RB, S-Bahn, 2nd class) in the fare zone Düsseldorf Central/North (fare zone 43) and neighbouring fare zones.

When does my DüsseldorfCard become valid and how long is it valid for?

The DüsseldorfCard is valid for 24, 48, 72 or 96 hours from the specified time.

Why does the cardholder's name have to be written on the DüsseldorfCard?

The DüsseldorfCard is issued to a specified individual. With the print@home ticket, your name will already be entered when making the booking. For the paper card and the Rheinbahn ticket, you will need to write in your name before you use the card.

Can someone else use my DüsseldorfCard?

No. The DüsseldorfCard is non-transferable. It is only valid in conjunction with an official identification.

What should be considered when purchasing a group ticket?

Only one name is entered onto the Group Card. The members of the group must travel together.

Can I combine several discounts at once?

This is not possible. The discounts always relate to the standard price.
