

CONDITIONS FOR FREE ENTRY

1. Admission to the Museum will be free for the following people during opening hours, subject to proof of membership of one of the aforementioned groups, on presentation at the ticket office of the corresponding official document, valid and visibly up-to-date, in each case:

a) Students aged 18-25.

b) Under 18s.

c) People with a disability, in accordance with the definition given in article 1.2 of Law 26/2011, of August 1, on the equal adaptation of regulations to the International Convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities. The person accompanying the person may also access the museum free of charge, provided that this person is essential for the person to be able to visit the museum.

d) A person who is legally unemployed.

e) Member of the following entities:

- Royal Board of Trustees of the Prado Museum.

- Fundación Amigos del Museo del Prado (Friends of the Prado Museum Foundation).

- APME (Asociación Profesional de Museólogos de España).

- ANABAD (Asociación Nacional de Archiveros, Bibliotecarios y Museólogos).

- AEM (Asociación Española de Museólogos).

- ICOM (International Council of Museums).

- Royal Academy of History.

- Real Academia de Bellas Artes de San Fernando.

- Royal Spanish Academy.

f) Staff working in state museums attached to the Ministry of Education, Culture and Sport.

g) Active teaching staff, as established in Article 104 of Organic Law 2/2006, of May 3, of Education.

h) Family group made up of at least one adult and three descendants (or two, if one of them has a disability or two in the case of death of one of the two parents), included in the same large family title, as established in Article 2 of Law 40/2003, of November 18, on the Protection of Large Families and Royal Decree 1621/2005, of 30 December, which develops the aforementioned law.

i) Official Tourist Guide.

j) Journalist.