

The route can include many of these choices:

- Umbrella Alley in Fishermans Wharf: Umbrella Alley is the perfect Instagram-friendly backdrop for your San Francisco photos.
- Fisherman's Wharf: San Francisco's #1 tourist destination! Fisherman's Wharf sign, with a crab emblazoned on a ship's wheel, is one of the most photographed locations.
- Marina District and Union Street: The Marina is a picturesque neighborhood of Art Deco structures with nearby Union Street the center of attention in Cow Hollow
- Palace of Fine Arts: The Palace of Fine Arts in the Marina District of San Francisco, California, is a monumental structure originally constructed for the 1915 Panama-Pacific Exposition
- Crissy Field: Crissy Field was transformed starting in 2001 from a former military airfield into a beloved national park site.
- Presidio of San Francisco: Presidio was designated a National Historic Landmark and the site has been part of the Golden Gate National Recreation Area since 1994
- Golden Gate Bridge: San Francisco's most iconic landmark, the Golden Gate Bridge!
- Legion of Honor Museum and Lincoln Park: Legion of Honor displays a collection of more than 4,000 years of ancient and European art overlooking Lincoln Park and the Golden Gate Bridge
- Ocean Beach and Pacific Ocean views: Ocean Beach San Francisco is the largest of the San Francisco beaches. 3.5-mile stretch of white beach. Great for strolling and flying kites.
- Alamo Square and Painted Ladies: Alamo Square Park offers views of the San Francisco skyline and the Painted Ladies Postcard Row
- Golden Gate Park: Inside of Golden Gate Park's 1,017 acres explore and discover gardens, playgrounds, lakes, picnic groves, trails, and monuments, plus an array of world class museums and cultural attractions
- Twin Peaks: Twin Peaks at 922 feet (282m) in height, offers spectacular views of the Bay Area, and is a world-famous tourist attraction
- Haight Ashbury: Eclectic and funky, the Haight-Ashbury district of San Francisco unapologetically marches to the beat of its own drum.
- Castro District: The Castro neighborhood remains one of the most prominent symbols of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) activism & events in the world
- Mission District and Amazing Murals: Mission District is an exuberant, evolving neighborhood with Latino roots. Home to Mission Dolores, the oldest intact building in San Francisco
- Japantown: Experience San Francisco's Japantown! This six-block district is known for its sushi, traditional massage, shopping and more!
- Union Square: Union Square, San Francisco's #1 shopping destination! The Square is home to hundreds of stores, restaurants, hotels, theaters, boutiques and more.
- Ferry Building and Embarcadero: The Ferry Building anchors San Francisco to the Bay at the foot of Market Street on the Embarcadero
- Transamerica Pyramid, Embarcadero Center and Financial District: The Transamerica Pyramid once disliked now beloved towers over the Financial District and Embarcadero Center in SF

- Chinatown: This is one of the oldest and most established Chinatowns in the U.S. Beyond iconic Dragon's Gate, a bustling maze of streets and alleys brims with dim sum joints and other traditional eateries.
- Dragon Gate: The Dragon Gate is the traditional stone archway greeting visitors to Chinatown since 1970
- North Beach and Little Italy: North Beach, a vibrant neighborhood that still embraces its Italian heritage that draws locals & visitors to its checked-tablecloth trattorias
- Lombard Street The Crookedest Street: Lombard Street's 8 world-famous hairpin turns have earned it the nickname the crookedest street in the world
- Cable Cars and Cable Car Museum: Enjoy soaring hilltop views of San Francisco from the seat of a classic cable car!